NO. 9

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Hume Bros. distillery boiler at Silver Creek, exploded, but hurt no one. John Lawwill, of Boyle, has the small-pox. He lives between Danville and Shelby City.

Howard Martin accidentally shot young Maggard in the head while hunting in Laurel, fatally wounding him.

Thomas Turner, a colored, boy was fined $60 and given 100 days in the county jail for striking Miss Bertha Goins, a young white girl at Richmond.

Tom Adams, a Negro, is in jail at Lebanon, for impersonating an officer and getting all the whisky he could drink at Hardesty's distillery.

The residence of Harry Giovannoli was bought by John A. Wood, of Garrard county, for $3,000, about $1,000 less than it cost.—Danville Advocate.

Three residences belonging to Mrs. Mary Williamson burned at Richmond. Loss about $2,700, with $1,400 insurance. The household goods of R. Lee Davis were entirely consumed.

J. W. Jones, who was in Columbia, parading as a postoffice inspector, was arrested on a charge of selling a mortgaged farm in Clark county, Iowa. His real name is W. I. Fogle.

John Hendrickson, charged with the murder of Calloway Carnes, was arrested in a coal mine in Bell county, and is now in jail at Pineville. He escaped recently from the Manchester jail.

The Pulaski fiscal court allowed the city of Somerset the sum of $949.50, it being one-half of the legitimate and reasonable expenses incurred in stamping out the late small-pox epidemic.

Henry Clay Black, nephew of the Hon. James D. Black, of Harboursville, has received official information from the War Department that he has passed the entrance examination to West Point.

While Rev. C. A. Logan and family were crossing the Kentucky river at Jackson, the boat was swept over by a mill-dam and his seven-year-old child was drowned. The others had a narrow escape.

Miss Louise Bohon, a Danville beauty, has been selected by the R. J. Breckinridge Camp of Confederate Veterans to be sponsor for it at the Memphis reunion. She is a daughter of W. J. Bohon.

Lewis Reynolds, son of Jack Reynolds, of Science Hill, drank two ounces of carbolic acid and died at Lexington, to which city he moved last summer. He and his wife had separated and jealousy of her caused the suicide.

Census Bulletin No. 57 shows Kentucky has 40,000 square miles land and 400 water surface. Lincoln county has 326, Casey 371, Boyle 190, Garrard 234, Mercer 254, and Pulaski 754, which is exceeded only by Pike 760 while Wayne has 617 and the smallest is Robertson 96.

Bro. Albright, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, referring to a despoiled contemporary, says that some creatures are posing as editors "that God intended should dig coal, break rock or carry out the slop tubs at some 2x4 hotel," and we can see where he is right.

Mr. Joe H. Gibson, cashier of the First National Bank, was unanimously elected County Treasurer. Sheriff Langdon was allowed credit for $1,400 on delinquent polls. This is doubtless correct and proper so far as the sheriff is concerned, but it is a disgrace to that many people in the county, since it must be a poor stick of a man whose pride of citizenship will allow himself returned delinquent for the small sum of $1.—Somerset Journal.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Bowling Green, has the largest Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday-school of that denomination in the State.

An Ohio clergyman has adopted a means newspaper advertising as a means of increasing the size of his congregation, and he finds it pays too.

Dr. Gray, of Los Angeles, Cal., has purchased 5,000,000 acres of land in Mexico and will establish a number of Mormon colonies, taking 5,000 Mormons from the United States.

The Rev. Alfred Waller, a clergyman in Southeast, Eng., offered $2 a year to any saloon-keeper who will hang up behind his bar a placard containing a verse of the hymn, "What Shall the Harvest Be?" One man agreed on condition that Mr. Waller would put up in church a notice of his bottled ales.

At the annual meeting of the American Tract Society Sunday it was stated that during the 59 years of the society's existence it has issued between 13,000,000 and 14,000,000 publications. During the year between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 pages of Christian literature in the Spanish language has been distributed in our island possessions.

A prayer service under the auspices of the C. W. B. M. will be held in the Christian church at 2 o'clock, Monday, April 1, and continuing through the week. Representative women of all the churches in town will take part in the services Thursday afternoon and on Saturday afternoon all the auxiliaries in the county and the one from Lancaster will be represented on the program. All members of the Stanford auxiliary are earnestly requested to attend the service Monday afternoon.

Low Rates Queen & Crescent Route. Travelers' Protective Association, Chattanooga, April 5th-6th. Southern Cotton Spinners' Association, Charlotte, N. C., May 9-10. Annual Encampment G. A. R. of Tenn., Greenville, May 15-16. Confederate Veterans Memphis, May 28-30th. Ask ticket agents for particulars.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

New York is to have a $6,000,000 hotel, which will be the finest in the world.

KINGSVILLE.

Prayer meeting is held on Thursday evening of each week.

Mr. W. L. McCarty says that he is uncertain about running the factory this year.

Miss Gerlie Leach, accompanied by Mrs. T. F. Johnson, went to Stanford to consult a dress-maker.

Rumor has it that a popular young couple here are to be made one in a surprisingly short while.

The democrats here seem to be very well satisfied with the result of the primary and even those who did not participate in the primary say they will support the nominees.

Mrs. C. G. Baker will have a fine line of millinery this season as usual, and Miss Lucille Johnson will again become her trimmer. Mr. J. M. McCarty will also have millinery if he succeeds in procuring a trimmer.

Dave Hicks has about completed a comfortable dwelling house on the pike, where quite a number of houses have been erected within the past year and it really looks very much like a "Stringtown on the Pike."

Tusco Waters has returned to Hillsboro, N. C., where he will resume his position as R. R. engineer. Waco Waters was shot in the leg recently by Emmett Gooch, who shot merely for fun, however. Dr. Thompson dressed the wound, which proved to be not a dangerous one.

Master Mike McCarty has been suffering from throat trouble. L. G. Oxley, a produce man, is here looking after business interests, with headquarters at Thompson's drug store. Mrs. Chevelotte will visit Mrs. Margaret Williams at Burgin this week.

A. E. Murley, of New River, Tenn., who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Robinson, has returned to her home accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and children. Miss Clara Dunn, recently returned from a pleasant and protracted visit to relatives in Grant county, is visiting friends near McKinney.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

The Versailles Sun says that J. A. Cohen bought 200 hogs at 5c.

S. T. Harbison, of Lexington, bought of Carter Bros. a gelding for $90.

HAY.—100 bales of good timothy hay for sale at 50c per bale. Mark Hardin.

M. M. Salles bought 60 90 pound hogs in Garrard at 5c.—Danville Advocate.

B. A. Hiatt has bought of Tim W. Hutchinson, the J. M. Delany farm of 142 acres near Highland, for $609.

The recent heavy rain and warm spells of weather have brought out the wheat in Jessamine considerable within the past 10 days.—Journal.

The Downing farm of 26 acres on the Richmond pike, four miles from Lexington, 33 1/2 at $101.15; 34 acres at $86.75 and 18 1/2 acres at $107.55.

R. S. Scudder, of Madison, is at Mr. F. M. Ware's, McKinney, with a fine horse and two jacks that they will stand this season. Pedigrees later.

In California millions of dollars' worth of oranges are rotting in the packing houses and on the grounds of the groves because of the lack of transportation facilities to move the enormous crop.

The prospects were never better at this time of the year for a very large fruit crop of all varieties in Hardin county and our fruit growers are feeling very comfortable over the outlook.—Etown News.

A race for a $50,000 purse, made up of $10,000 a corner and $20,000 added by Thomas W. Lawson, between Charley Herr, Crescens and Borama, is announced by Mr. Lawson. It is to be best three in five heats; the first horse to take $30,000; the second $20,000. Each owner to deposit $2,500 and the remainder the night before the race. All gate receipts to be divided. The race will be handled by the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' Association.

MATRIMONIAL.

A Rochester, N. Y., man was fined $1,000 for kissing a pretty trained nurse who attended his wife in her last illness.

Miss Elizabeth Livingston, 42, of Pulaski, and Daniel Hager, 65, of Jessamine, met at Lancaster and were married.

Potter Palmer has given the income of the Palmer House, Chicago, which is $250,000 a year, to his wife for pin money.

A fraud order has been issued by the postal authorities against a fake matrimonial bureau of Syracuse, N. Y., which has caught many suckers.

From a late Tuscola (Ill.) paper we learn of the re-marriage of Joseph W. (Bud) McBeath, Sr., and Mrs. Nevada McBeath, after a separation by divorce for eight years, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, Decatur. Mr. and Mrs. McBeath were married in Somerset in 1877, where he was raised and engaged in mercantile business for many years. She was a daughter of Malvin Jones, sister to Mrs. Phil B. Porch.—Somerset Journal.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandula and other swellings are quickly cured by applying. Every bottle warranted. Price 25 and 50c. For sale by Craig & Hocker Druggists.

Brer Richardson, of the Glasgow Times, gives this sage advice: And now arrives that fateful period when men fall from grace planting the garden, and women lose their religion shooting the hens. After all dear brethren, the best way in the world to work a garden is over a telephone.

LANCASTER.

J. Clark bought M. Folger's tobacco crop at 6c per pound.

Elder A. R. Moore will attend the "Congress of Disciples," which meets in Lexington the 26th.

The Social and Industrial Club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Louis Landram and Misses Altie and Bessie Marksberry.

Rev. G. W. Young, the noted temperance orator, will deliver one of his inimitable lectures here this evening at the court house.

Rev. Leonidas Robinson left yesterday for Williamstown, where he will hold a protracted meeting for the Methodists. He will be absent about two weeks.

Miss Cordie Hamilton, of Buena Vista, and Mittle Dunn, of Bryansville, are guests of Mrs. Letcher Owsley. Misses Cora Jones, of Somerset, and Stella Ballou, of Stanford, are visiting Mrs. H. M. Ballou.

The little Misses Allen have been victims of the "plok eye." Editor Louis Landram has had a relapse of the grip. B. W. Gaines has suffered an attack of pneumonia.

Dr. J. L. McKee, after a week's services, discontinued the revival at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. He is troubled with hoarseness and considered a cessation necessary to the preservation of his voice.

Jacob Robinson sold to Sweeney Morgan 26 hogs at 4 1/2c. Mr. Morgan shipped a car load of hogs to the city Saturday. T. J. Herring bought of Jack Bourne 16 sheep at 4c.

R. G. Ward has bought Capt. Wm. Herndon's dwelling and in payment is to erect for Mr. Herndon a handsome residence on the beautiful building lot, a portion of the Herndon place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baughman, of Danville, Miss Jennie Embry, William Hiatt and son, Allen, Mrs. W. T. Browning and children, of Lexington, Mrs. Frank Bacon and little son, of Louisville, attended Mrs. S. A. Harris' funeral at this place on Monday.

Mrs. G. M. Patterson has returned from Livingston, where she arranged as president of the district W. C. T. U. for the next annual meeting of that organization April 30 and May 1 and 2. The district includes Boyle, Madison, Mercer, Rockcastle and Garrard.

Misses Julia May and Nannie Gaines were here Saturday with their visitors, Misses Early, of Fayette, and Jennie Turley, of Missouri. George Harris, of Carlisle, is here at his old home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harris. Dr. A. S. Price and two fair young ladies, of Stanford, were in this city Sunday.

A concert will be given next Thursday evening at the opera house for the benefit of the Cloverport sufferers. The best vocalists and other fine local musicians, including the Lancaster orchestra, under the leadership of T. B. Long, will furnish the program and a first class musical entertainment is promised. Admission 15, 25 and 35c.

More sod is being broken and a larger acreage of corn will be planted in the county this spring than for years. Last year $60 worth of clover and timothy seed were sown on a certain farm and already all but 12 acres of it have been broken, with a probability of turning the rest a little later because of so poor a set in grass.

The trial of Luther Ray for the killing of Edgar Brown election night, resulted in a verdict of acquittal. The defense made a much better case than at the previous trial, a number of witnesses testifying to having heard Brown threaten Ray's life. The father of Ray was also said to have advised his son that it might be necessary for him to kill Brown in self-defense.

Mr. Masonheimer, a guest at the Garrard Hotel, who travels for a tobacco house at Lexington, suffered a partial stroke of paralysis while attending Fields' minstrels here Friday night. He was taken in a carriage to Danville, where he has resided a number of years. He is well known in this section, as he represented a Cincinnati fruit firm for a long time previous to his present engagement.

Mrs. Sallie Ann Harris, after an illness of about six days, from bronchial pneumonia, died at her home in this city Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. She had reached her 75th year, and belonged to a wide and influential relationship. She was the daughter of the wealthy farmer, Allen Hiatt, of three generations ago. She had been twice married, her first husband being Jack Beazley, a brother of the late James and Allen Beazley and Mesdames Garrard Elkin and Martha Salter. Her second husband was Russell Harris, an influential farmer of the Sugar Creek section. Mrs. Harris leaves an aged sister, Mrs. Susan Anderson, three daughters, Mesdames John and Simeon Anderson and Miss Dove Harris, and one son, residing in the West. The funeral was preached at the home on Monday afternoon by Elder Jesse Walden, assisted by Eld. A. R. Moore. The deceased was one of the oldest members of the Christian church and her placid, spiritual face will long be missed by a host of friends and relatives.

TWICE PROVEN.

(Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.) The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for 10 days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and get up free from pain.—For sale by Craig & Hocker Druggists.

A Marion county trader bought a car of hogs at 5c.

POLITICAL.

Attorney General Griggs has resigned.

The civil service commission will oppose the reappointment of Collector Sapp.

The working force of the government departments in Washington number 19,446, drawing salaries to the amount of $16,628,505.72 per annum.

Thirteen of the 21 members of the Democratic Committee in the Fulton-Hickman legislative district met at Fulton; denounced the action of the meeting of committeemen at Clinton March 2; declared Mott Ayers the nominee for Representative and directed County Clerks to place his name on the official ballot.

As Mr. Watterson says so say all true democrats: Down with the piratical black flag of republicanism, down with the parti-colored flag of populism, and up with the bright old banners of democracy, untried and untried! Let the word go forth in every legislative district and senatorial sub division from one end of Kentucky to the other, and we shall see at Frankfort next winter a body of picked Kentuckians, on whom the people can rely.

To Declare Farris Nominated.

The democratic executive committee of the 18th Senatorial District of Kentucky is ordered to meet at the court-house in Stanford on the 6th day of April, 1901, and if by the 1st day of April, 1901, there is no opposing candidate for the democratic nomination for State Senator, the executive committee of said district will declare Hon. Geo. T. Farris the democratic nominee for State Senator without the intervention of a convention. R. C. WARREN, Chairman 18th Senatorial Dist.

Well Said.

I desire through your paper to express my heartfelt thanks to my friends who so loyally supported me in the race for jaller of Lincoln county, and earnestly entreat them, every one, to be just as true and loyal, when the final test comes, to all those who won in the recent primary, especially to my worthy and successful competitor, Mr. Isaac Herpin. He, as well as the whole ticket, deserve and shall have my hearty support, and my friends who interested themselves in my behalf, can do nothing more pleasing to me now than to work for the democratic ticket until the final vote is taken in November. JOHN PEPPLES.

Urges Election of Ticket.

As I will not likely be privileged to see each and all of those good democrats who favored and assisted me in my effort to become the nominee for sheriff, I avail myself of this means of expressing to them my profound thanks for their free and zealous assistance. I assure you, my friends, that I feel very grateful for this high evidence of your confidence in my integrity and ability to serve you. In thanking you I am not insensible of the conflict and duty that now confronts us all, and would urge you to join me in an effort to elect the worthy ticket nominated. T. J. HILL, SR.

Stanford Male Academy.

The following is the roll of honor of the Stanford Male Academy for the seventh month ending March 22, 1901: Grade I. Joseph H. Murphy, 97; Chas. R. Wright, 93; James G. Carpenter, 93.

Grade II. Elijah T. Spoonamore, 97; Allen J. Coffey and George O. Spoonamore, 96; Winfrey Duncan and John Menefee, Jr., 93; Henry Clay Rupley, 92; George G. Beazley, 91.

Grade III. Richard M. Williams, 97; Hubert Carpenter and Cecil Williams, 96; George Guy Gilmore Menefee, 94; George E. Cooper, 92; Adam M. Pence, 88.

Grade A. Robert L. Porter, 99; Miss Ella May Newland, 96.

Robert L. Porter and Miss Ella May Newland were perfect in deportment this month.

Winfrey Duncan, Robert L. Porter, John Menefee, Robert Root, George and Thomas Spoonamore, Richard Williams and Charles Wright were neither absent nor tardy this month. E. L. GRUBBS, Prin.

MRS. E. L. GRUBBS, Ass't.

BABY SUSAN.—At midnight Thursday, March 21, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carter and claimed one of their little ones as its own. Little Susan, a bright, sweet baby of 20 months, was taken from them to the Paradise of God, there to become a beautiful angel. Every care and attention that loving ones could bestow were hers, but of no avail. She had pneumonia and lingered only one week, when her spirit took its flight. It was hard, O, so hard, to give her up, but perhaps it is better so, for her little body will never again suffer pain, and her soul rests with Him who said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." Susan was one of the twins of whom Mr. and Mrs. Carter were justly very proud. Elizabeth, Susan's twin sister, and Robert, a boy of five, are left to be a comfort to the father and mother in their grief. In this time of deep distress they have the greatest sympathy of their many friends. MARY D.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Miss Martha Hauser is suing the postmaster at Barada, Mich., for $5,000 for calling her "a hateful old maid."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

The Editor Visits his Old Virginia Home.

By the kindness of a brother, whose every thought seems to be of my pleasure and welfare, I am again permitted to visit the scenes of my younger days and live over again, as it were, the happy hours of childhood. Twenty years ago I knew every chick and child in my neighborhood in dear old Hanover county, Va., but now I am almost a stranger in a strange land. Young men of those days are the old citizens now and I am deeply impressed with the fact that "I'm not as young as I used to be."

Since my last visit to the Old Dominion, some eight years ago, my only sister has been made a widow and her grief, as well as the absence of her husband's cheery words, saddens my visit to the dear old home no little. But I must not dwell on sad thoughts; happy ones are best received.

Through the courtesy of Mr. G. W. Barney, the clever C. & O. passenger agent at Lexington, myself and little daughter were provided with transportation over that splendid railroad, which runs through a portion of the most picturesque scenery in the United States. Leaving the beautiful blue grass counties of Fayette, Clark and Montgomery, the tourist is soon merged into the mountains of Rowan and other counties and almost before he knows it, he has penetrated West Virginia, whose river and mountain scenery is superb. This feeble pen will not attempt to describe the magnificence of the scenery along New River in the above State. The beautiful, clear river on one side and towering peaks on the other must be seen to be best appreciated.

The C. & O. has probably more summer resorts on its line than any road East of the Mississippi. The famous old White Sulphur Springs, where in days gone by, the wealthiest of the wealthy gathered every summer, is still a popular watering place and justly so. The climate in summer is delightful, while the sulphur and other waters there, are the purest in the country.

The magnificent C. & O. trains, which run from Lexington to Washington, are about as near traveling palaces as one could well imagine. Heated by steam, lighted by electricity and the car seats and backs as soft as elder down pillows, the traveler is as much at ease in one of its Pullman cars as he is in the parlor of a wealthy Lincoln county citizen.

zen. 'Tis a modern age, when a man can enjoy such luxuries while going over the country.

Virginia, though further South, is not as verdant as Kentucky and little grass is seen. The climate is warmer, but it seems that the soil does not do its work as early as that around Stanford. The fields in the grand old State may not be as green nor the soil as rich as that of other States, but every inch of Virginia's ground is precious to those of us who claim it as our native State.

I write hurriedly to catch the mail. Good-bye for a day or two. E. C. W.

THERE is a battle royal on for supremacy in subscription lists between the Lexington Herald and its youthful competitor, the Democrat. The former is offering a house and lot, a two weeks' trip to Ocean View and another of the same length to Old Point, and the latter two trips to the Pan American Exposition, in prize contests. This is all very well for papers that can not get subscriptions any other way; the INTERIOR JOURNAL does not have to resort to such schemes. It has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State, and its advertising patronage is so large as to be actually burdensome. The way to get subscribers is to give the people more than the worth of their money in the paper and with subscribers in large numbers, the advertisements come unsolicited. We actually turned off three columns of good ads. this issue.

THE committee appointed by Judge Barker to white wash Lawyer Kinkead in the charges made against him by Gov. Beckham didn't exactly fulfill expectations. The majority exonerates Kinkead and says the charges made by the governor were without foundation, but Maj. R. C. Davis filed a minority report, dissenting from the latter conclusion and saying that from the papers before him there were grounds for the charges. Maj. Davis will doubtless be fired at once from the civil libertine band, for having opinions of his own and the courage to express them.

THE supreme court of North Carolina, which is republican, has solemnly asseverated in a ponderously worded opinion that church officers have the right to expel from membership any Negro who votes the democratic ticket. The same court would doubtless hold that a Negro has the natural and inalienable right to rob hen roosts and still retain church membership and "zort the brethren" to similar achievements.

THE Louisville Post is engaged in publishing ghost stories, which are about as true as the average item in that paper.

MR. BRYAN, in his Commoner, offers a reward of $5 for a written statement, not to exceed 500 words, signed by Mr. Cleveland, applying democratic principles as he understands them, to at least five of the questions now before the country. This is in response to Mr. Cleveland's recent letter appealing to the rank and file of the democratic party to return to correct principles and is in keeping with the character of the editorial that follows in the discussion of the latter, the whole of which is undignified and not in keeping with the kind of matter to be expected from one who has twice aspired and is apparently still aspiring to the highest office in the land. Job was anxious for his adversary to write a book. The enemies of Mr. Bryan must feel fully as satisfied that he is editing a paper.

IT begins to look like at least a common school education ought to be one of the requisites to admission to the bar, judging by the ludicrous breaks of some of the so-called lawyers in orthography, etymology, syntax and prosody. A Lexington firm of Blackstone degenerates recently described a hog in a petition as a "Pole & China" and now comes a Louisville broken limb of the law with a petition for divorce on the ground that the defendant wife was "unchased."

THE governor of Indiana granted a requisition for some Shelby county Negroes last week, wanted for house-breaking. What's the matter with trying him with one for Taylor and Finley et al? They stand indicted for the most heinous offense and should be brought to justice, which in this case, looks like the gallows.

INSTEAD of disfranchising drunken men as they should be, the Illinois Legislature will provide that "intoxication shall be regarded as a physical disability, and an intoxicated person shall be entitled to assistance in marking his ballot," as blind or ignorant people are. Shame upon such law making.

IT is told that President Harrison wrote his own will. It remains to be seen if he made one the courts wont break. Samuel J. Tilden was a great lawyer, but his will, written by himself, didn't pass the muster of the courts.

COL. A. S. BERRY says he has retired from politics. He evidently means that politics has retired him. His fight on Goebel sounded his death knell.

A terrific windstorm swept over Birmingham, Ala., and vicinity yesterday, killing 20 people in Birmingham and suburbs, and injuring many. Fifty were killed at Irondale, a few miles away. A number of houses are reported to have been wrecked and the property damage is great.

E. B. Sweeney has filed suit in Boyle against the Times and Courier Journal for $10,000 each for charging that he obtained money by false pretenses.

Four men are reported to have kidnapped Mat Delph, from Livingston. Delph was a member of a revenue party which had raided several moonshine stills.

EDITOR WOODSON, of the Owensboro Messenger, who has been there, gives this good advice, but advice like medicine is easier given than taken: We want Journalist Walton to have anything he wants, and he deserves any party reward he may ask, but we advise him to leave that railroad commissionership alone. Office-holding in high or low degree is a delusion and a snare.

MR. HARRISON ROBERTSON'S new book, "The Inlander," is receiving highly flattering notices. Since Mr. Robertson has become so noted an author and shaved off his moustache, he looks more like James Whitcomb Riley than the Courier-Journal scribe the writer knew a score or more years ago.

CUT IN TWAIN.—The body of an unknown man was found near Kingsville on the Cincinnati Southern track. It had been cut in twain by the train, the right leg was mangled and there was a hole in the head. Eight cents and two empty bottles were found in his pockets. The man was about 20 years of age, slim, with light hair and brown eyes, about five feet six inches high and weighed about 150 pounds.

ANTHONY.—A dispatch yesterday said that the body of Clarence Anthony would arrive today for burial, but gave no particulars as to his death. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Anthony and a very bright young man.

THE sensational correspondents are making a great ado over a Moreland Negro, Charles Woolridge, who eats glass, but say nothing of the large number who never eat anything, they work for.

Contemplating A New Design In Wall Paper!

THE OLD FEELING OF THE PAST REVIVED.

Everything in the world gets its form from some ideal, whether a man, a flower or a piece of wall paper. The art productions of to day are but the expressions of an ideal that has been fostered through the ages. Half the fun of living is in an attractive home.

An Attractive Home

THE building of the wood work of the large ice house for the Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co. was awarded to J. A. Allen & Co. at $747. It will require over 40,000 feet of lumber and shingles galore. Ten men were at work on it yesterday.

THE gifted vocalist, Mrs. Cecilia Eppenhausen Bailey, with Mrs. Lee F. Huffman, of Lexington, as accompanist, will give a song recital at Walton's Opera House, April 29, under the auspices of the C. W. B. M., all music lovers will be glad to know.

THE Glasgow Times thinks that the failure of Lincoln county democrats to give Dink Farmer's blood hounds a chance, shows that they are not dead game sports and can not recognize a good thing when they see it. As clever old Dink was only beaten by nine votes, the question is still somewhat in abeyance, to be settled finally four years hence.

TWO deaf and dumb boys, Herbert Renssagh and William Nox, who escaped from the D. & D. Institute at Danville, were captured near Lily, Laurel county, by O. J. Newland and returned. They gave as a reason for leaving that they did not like to stay there, but when Newland told them that it was that or go to jail, they came without a murmur.

HEAVY FINE — R. G. Hall, George W. Wait, Cy Wait and L. E. Hunt, charged with conspiracy to defraud the Somerset Banking Company, were fined $1,000 each, to be paid at hard labor if not paid in money or relieved. Application was made for a new trial. There are other cases against them to be tried this term, one for making false report of the condition of the bank.

FOUNTAIN LYNCH, a human pervert, is in jail charged with failure to support his infant children and with beating his 16 year old daughter in a most unmerciful manner. It will be hard for the average father to realize how a man can fall so low as to let his offspring starve or be otherwise cruel to them, and a fellow charged with such offense, would get it to the full extent of the law before a jury of fathers. As there is already a fine of $25 against Lynch in the circuit court, Judge Bailey let him off with a $10 fine, as it would do no good to keep him in jail.

An association to be known as "The Boyle and Lincoln County Burial Association" has been formed, the object of which is to provide for the funeral expenses of its members. Any one between the ages of 1 and 70, who is in good health, can join. Persons over 10 years pay 12 cents on the death of a member, who is allowed $100 for burial and those below that age pay 6 cents and are entitled to a $50 burial. C. L. Gover is president and treasurer, W. W. Wiseman vice president and Boyle Nichols secretary. Nichols & Gover are the association's undertakers. The circulars just printed at this office show how cheaply one can get a decent burial by joining the association.

RIGHT SORT OF DEMOCRATS.—When Prospective Squire J. A. Dudderar was said to have been beaten by John W. Walter, a bolter said to him, "I reckon you will be with us after this," when he hotly replied that defeat nor any other thing would swerve him from the support of the full democratic ticket, which he will vote as long as he can get to the polls. Mr. C. S. Rogers, who was defeated, on being told by a republican who imagined he was sore, that anybody who would vote for the ticket nominated on the 16th ought to be kicked, told the fellow if he thought so to begin on him as he intended to vote it from first to last. By the way Mr. Dudderar feels much elated in winning over a field of good ones and asks us to say to those who supported him that he will show his gratitude by proving that they did not misplace their confidence in him.

THE Charade Club enjoyed a unique trip from Cincinnati to Boston last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bright with Miss Florence Meyers as hostess. The pretty new home so recently finished was converted for the evening into a Pullman palace car and when the "last call for dinner in the dining car" was sounded, the guests were presented with complimentary tickets and conducted to the dining room, where two rows of tables with an aisle between and the buffet in the bay window presented a fine imitation of a real dining car. Here the guests between courses examined their tickets, which were found to be a prospectus in anagram of the trip they were supposed to be taking and the converting of the puzzles into the names of the principal cities between Cincinnati and Boston and the sights to be found in Boston furnished much amusement and entertainment. After finishing the delightful luncheon, over which Mrs. Bright graciously presided, the successful guessers, who were many, drew for the prizes—a pretty linen traveling roll for ladies and a pocket blotter for the men. Miss Nettie Wray and Mr. P. M. McRoberts were the lucky contestants. The party then returned to Stanford and the drawing room, where a delightful hour was spent in music and conversation. Mr. Bright as ticket agent and distributor of folders, giving full information as to trains and connections, scenery and points along the route and Master Thomas Phelps Bright as news boy with his official cap and bundle of papers, added greatly to the reality of the illusion. There were present besides the regular club members: Mr. and Mrs. Will Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tate, Misses Dollie McRoberts, Lizzie and Mary Bright, Phelps and Baldwin, of Richmond, and Messrs. Will Shanks, Jack Rout, Wallace Withers, Jack Beazley, Dick Denny, Will Embry, Ashby Warren, Hill Spalding, Walter Walker, Phelps Cobb, P. M. McRoberts and Dr. Jones.

YESTERDAY was a real April day with its sunshine and showers. Rain fell all night and the clouds are threatening this morning.

If you want a high, medium or low-priced carpet see our samples and get prices. We'll save you money. J. P. Jones.

HAD A RAZOR.—Marshal Jones arrested Malinda Kendrick in Macks-ville Sunday night as she was going for another Negro woman. On being searched a razor was found in Malinda's stocking and she is in jail charged with carrying concealed weapons.

OSTEOPATHY.

This Science, originated and developed by Dr. A. T. Still, of Kirksville, Mo., depends on the principles of Anatomy and Physiology for its results. It requires no faith, no drug, no rubbing, no surgical operations, and claims nothing supernatural. Osteopathy views man as a machine of so many parts; its keynote is adjustment. When all parts are properly adjusted and not overworked, health is the result. Some of the diseases treated by Dr. Slavin & Phillips are: Nervous Prostration, Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Weak Eyes, Granulated Lids, Goitre, Heart, Liver, and Lung Diseases, Constipation, Piles, Gall Stones, Enlarged Prostate, all Stomach and Intestinal troubles, Diseases of Bones and Joints, Spinal Curvature, Dislocations, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, Incontinence of Urine, Locomotor Ataxia, Female Diseases a specialty.
